Meeting Tomorrow's Energy Demands Today

The energy sector is undergoing an immense transformation. It is balancing the future energy needs of consumers and businesses, while providing reliable, safe, and affordable sources through the interconnected infrastructure system in place today. With changing consumer demands, the energy sector is responding with innovative technologies and solutions. This panel will look at the challenges and opportunities that exist for states, consumers, and the energy industry in this rapidly changing world.

Blockchain Technology

What is Blockchain? How can it be used by state agencies? Blockchain can be simply defined as a digital ledger in which transactions made in bitcoin or another cryptocurrency are recorded chronologically and publicly. The digital ledger system includes security measures for recording business transactions, information and events in near real time. The 2018 Joint Economic Report to Congress stated government agencies at all levels should consider new uses for this technology which could make government more efficient in performing its functions. Learn strategies and why policymakers, regulators and entrepreneurs should continue to work together to ensure developers can deploy these new blockchain technologies quickly and in a manner that protects Americans from fraud, theft, and abuse, while ensuring compliance with relevant regulations.

Social Activities

TPC Scottsdale Golf Tournament

Experience the beautiful TPC Scottsdale while helping support Tee It Up for the Troops. The course, designed by Jay Morrish and Tom Weiskopf, is home to the largest spectator golf event in the world and is Arizona's only PGA TOUR property! Come delight in an afternoon on this unparalleled course set in the Sonoran Desert surrounded by the McDowell Mountains. Tee It Up for the Troops was founded in 2005 by the family and friends of a soldier serving in Iraq. When the son was asked what he needed, he responded by asking his father to do something for the returning service members and their families back home. Tee It Up for the Troops was established to honor that selfless request. The organization provides support to critical areas of need including treatment of PTSD, suicide awareness and prevention, employment, sports and recreation, family and caregiver support, and housing. This will be the 7th year SGAC has partnered with Tee It Up for the Troops!
