

State Government Affairs Council

About SGAC

SGAC's mission is to advance and support the state government affairs profession by fostering community and relationship building with peers and elected officials, building knowledge, and promoting diverse perspectives in a nonpartisan environment.

Networking	Structured and convenient opportunities to interact with members and policy makers within small scale educational, business, and social environments
Professional Development	Unparalleled professional development and leadership training tracks through annual meetings, conferences, and SGAC's unique State Government Affairs Professional Certificate program
Partnerships	Close partnerships and joint events with groups such as ACYPL, BLLN, CSG, NBPLA, NCSL, NGA, NFWL, SLLF, and WIG

Annual Events

About Leaders' Policy Conference:

The Leaders' Policy Conference (LPC), hosted by the SGAC Foundation, is an annual event that brings together state legislative leaders and state government affairs professionals from top businesses and associations. It fosters dialogue on key issues between legislative leaders and the private sector, serving as a valuable educational opportunity. Attendance is by invitation only, including legislative leaders from all 50 states, SGAC Partner Organizations, SGAC members, and private sector representatives.

About the National Summit:

SGAC's National Summit brings together top state government relations professionals from business, associations, and service providers. It offers programming for entire teams, whether you're seasoned, new, or a solo practitioner. Attendees will explore industry trends and strengthen their networks. This exclusive event is for Members and Partner Organization Representatives only.
